

Govt to set up co-ops for seeds, exports: Shah

PRABHUDATTA MISHRA

New Delhi, September 8

Union Co-operation Minister Amit Shah on Thursday announced a host of initiatives, including setting up of two national-level multi-State co-operatives – one for seeds and the other for exports.

The government has also been working to allow co-operative major National Agricultural Co-operative Marketing Federation of India to bring into its fold village-level Primary Agriculture Cooperative Societies. The government, under Amul, will form a co-operative to certify and market organic products.
